UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA
YUNIBESITHI YA PRETORIA

Tuesday 12 November 2019
The Ballroom, 1st floor, The Maslow Hotel, Time Square, Pretoria
Conference 08h00 to 15h00

The University of Pretoria; Department of Science and Technology / National Research Foundation Centre of Excellence for Food Security, the Centre for the Study of Governance Innovation, in collaboration with the Faculty of Humanities, Department of Political Science, and Faculty of Natural and Agricultural Science hereby cordially invites you or your senior representative (1 delegate) to attend the inaugural South African UN Week of Science and Peace Conference.

Theme: 'African Innovative Solutions to Sustainable African Peace and Development'.

There will be 250 high-level delegates from across government, diplomatic, corporate, civil society, international organizations and academic sectors to this exclusive event, which it views beyond a 'talk shop' but step one in a series of planned events over the next year. The aim of the Conference, in addition to awareness, is to create synergy driven partnerships across sectors to leverage scarce resources and link availability of skills to create sustainable partnerships that promote the use of science, technology, information dissemination and innovative theory to advance in practice the promotion of peace and development, through amongst other means, job creation and proper infrastructure. All against the background of the 4th Industrial Revolution, achieving the Sustainable Development Goals 2030 and the African Union Agenda 2063. The programme and RSVP form are attached below.

2x2m or 33x3m exhibition stands are available at R7,500.00 and R10,000.00 respectively. Arrange with the Events Management Company if interested.

RSVP by 18 October 2019
